CBD prioritizes community service

With growth comes social responsibility. And Commercial Bank of Dubai knows it well. Giving back to the community has always been its priority. It has partnered with several key, cause-oriented, non-profit community-based groups to assist them morally and financially in their various humanitarian projects.

The donation is part of CBD's Corporate Social Responsibility program, which recognizes and supports the idea that businesses should have the conscience to care for the community and the environment.

The groups that received donations from CBD this year include Red Crescent, Zayed Higher Organization for Humanitarian Care & Special Needs, Future Centre for Special Needs, Mohammed Bin Rashid Foundation for Charitable & Humanitarian Establishment, Al Tjahaj Club for Handicapped, Dubai Autism Centre, Sharjah City for Humanitarian Needs, Emirates Thalassemia, and Beit Al Khar Society.

Bank sponsors Dubai Tour 2015

Commercial Bank of Dubai will be the main sponsor of Dubai Tour 2015 and its bike jersey, which is worn by the general classification leader. The 2015 edition of the Dubai Tour, the UAE's premier cycling event, was launched on November 19, 2014. This second edition of the tour is scheduled from February 4 to 7, 2015.

Peter Baltussen, Chief Executive Officer of CBD, said "Commercial Bank of Dubai is pleased to sponsor the 2nd Cycle of Dubai Tour. This event contributes significantly to elevating the UAE's sports sector and embodies the vision of our government to develop and promote sports in the UAE, led by His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Vice President and Prime Minister of the UAE and Ruler of Dubai.

The 20-year-old Italian, who is nicknamed 'The Shark', will return with his Astana team to Dubai to compete in the second edition of the event. It promises to be a highly-contested affair on the roads in Dubai. Mibak's participation is considered a boost for the Dubai Tour organizers.

Bank sponsors Emiratization drive at Careers UAE 2014

His Highness Sheikh Maktoum bin Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Deputy Ruler of Dubai, paid a visit to the CBD pavilion at the "Careers UAE 2014", which was held at the International Convention and Exhibition Centre.

The Bank, as a major sponsor for this annual event, had a booth in which HR staff and CBD executives met future employees. Through this participation, CBD showcased the career opportunities available to UAE nationals and provided the students relevant information about the various training programs and the career path they can have at CBD.

HR Sheikh Maktoum, who met local employees of the bank, was briefed on the efforts made by CBD in Emiratizing jobs and its future plans in the region.

New batch of MTP graduates to become new managers

The Commercial Bank of Dubai (CBD) Emiratization program has achieved notable success with 40 percent of its total number of employees now composed of UAE citizens and trusted with key positions.

A new batch of UAE citizens also recently graduated from the financial institution's intensive year-long management training program to become new managers themselves.

As part of its role as a leading national institution, CBD pays great attention to attracting, qualifying and training UAE nationals to work in the banking sector.

Commercial Bank of Dubai recognized for outstanding Emiratization achievements

The outstanding localization efforts and achievements of Commercial Bank of Dubai (CBD) have been appreciated and recognized by the GCC Social Affairs and Labor Ministers Council. CBD received a certificate of recognition from H.E. Hadi Sabah Barak Al-Sabah, Kuwait's Minister of Social Affairs and Labor and Minister of State for Planning and Development at a ceremony held to recognize private and public sector companies who have made significant contributions to localization in the GCC.

The award is an added incentive for us to move forward in our ambitious plans to support the vision of our leaders, His Highness Sheikh Khalifa bin Zayed Al Nahyan, President of the UAE, and His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, UAE Vice President, Prime Minister and Ruler of Dubai, for the growth and development for our nation," she added.
